School Holidays:

Just a reminder that Term 2 finishes at 3.00pm this Friday 2 July and the children return to school on Monday 19 July.

Sports Field Days:

These will be held Tuesday week 2 of Term 2. The postponement date is normally Thursday of that week.

Duffy Role Model Assembly:

Our Role Model Assembly will be held on the first Friday of next term. Our guest speaker is Chelsea Marriner, a NZ and World Champion in dog agility training. Chelsea and her dogs will also be putting on a show for our children.

Next term we will be asking for $2 per student to cover the cost of the show.

Internet Permission:

Just a reminder that the internet permission forms are due back. For those children who do not return their forms then we will assume that your parents /caregivers do not want you to use the internet.

Music Show:

St Stephens School from Perth is performing for our children on Thursday morning. The band is part of the annual Rhapsody Rotorua festival .

NZ Childrens' Librarians Conference:

Our children have been asked to participate in the Powhiri for the Childrens' Librarians Conference in week1 of next term.

The children from Middle School will be part of the powhiri where they will be performing the waiata for Kaumatua. The powhiri will be starting at 8am at the Civic Centre. We will be sending out permission slips on the Monday after the holidays.

Important News!!

From the start of next term all parents will need to use our new carpark and drop-off area at the Pukeroa Hill school entrance. We have been informed by Rotorua District Council that all cars double-parked on either Arawa Street or Rangiuru Street will be ticketed!
